Tax Residency and Tax Identification Number

Tax regulations<sup>1</sup> require the collection of certain information about each Account Holder's residency, including the Shareholders of corporate entities. Please complete, where applicable, the tax residency and the Tax Identification Number (TIN) or a functional equivalent. In certain circumstances, please note that LMAX Global may be required to share this information with relevant tax authorities.

Each jurisdiction has its own rules for defining tax residence, and jurisdictions have provided information on how to determine if you are resident in the jurisdiction on the following website:

<https://www.oecd.org/tax/automatic-exchange/crs-implementation-and-assistance>

Please indicate all countries in which you are resident for tax purposes and the associated Tax Identification Numbers in the table below. If you are a US citizen or resident, please include United States in this table along with your US Tax Identification Number.

<sup>1</sup> The term "tax regulations" refers to regulations created to enable automatic exchange of information and include FATCA<sup>2</sup>, various Agreements to Improve International Tax Compliance entered into between the UK, the Crown Dependencies and the Overseas Territories, and the OECD Common Reporting Standard for Automatic Exchange of Financial Account Information.
<sup>2</sup> The term "tax regulations" refers to The Foreign Account Tax Compliance provisions contained in the US Hire Act 2010
